SUBJECT: REQUESTING COUNSEL

I am currently seeking counsel in a civil suit for delayed treatment at Cook County Department of Corrections. My injury happened while in custody at CCDOC over 2 years ago. I have received no treatment as prescribed by outside hospital E.R. physicians or outside Orthopedic Surgeons. I have been given physical therapy for an Achilles Rupture, a cane, an AFO drop foot brace due to the simple fact that my injury has increased over the last 2 years.

The onset of my injury was in June 2005 and my immediate treatment was diagnosed in the E.R. for a surgical intervention and MRI which to this day has not happened. For the past 2 years I have been on constant prescriptions of pain and anti-inflammatory medications which have been given to me at irregular intervals as documented in medical records and grievances.

Prior to my incarceration I was a Healthcare Laboratory Instructor and Clinical professional in the hospital settings. I cannot see myself in these settings currently due to my inability to walk normally or stand for long periods of time.

I am a pretrial detainee and asking for your assistance in this matter pro bono.

Sincerely,

Marshall Stewart
